

Something Different | Devil Cross (www.devilcross.com)

NOTE: In a "Something Different" puzzle, most of the entries are completely made-up, but the puzzle is still solvable because the clues are just straightforward enough to lead you to the correct answers. For instance, a clue such as [Like a comic book character in a cubicle] would produce the answer DILBERTESQUE. My recommendation for solving it would be to start with the shorter answers because those are usually legitimate, and then try to figure out the longer answers from there.
